Galway es diferente, única, especial. La capital cultural de Irlanda ha sido descrita como la Venecia del Oeste. Se extiende en la costa atlántica de Irlanda. Como la ciudad europea de más rápido crecimiento, es la sede de la mayoría de las compañías de última tecnología, informática, comunicación y equipos médicos, si bien conserva su tradición de ciudad acogedora y de gentes amables. La escuela está reconocida por el Ministerio de Educación irlandés. Cuenta con una cafetería, biblioteca y zona común para los estudiantes.
